

Expanded Coverage of Chemotherapy

Effective with date of service 9-1-05 forward, Medicaid's Professional Services program, has made most chemotherapy and supportive care drugs payable at the current Medicare rate to facilitate expanded access to chemotherapy services during the recovery from hurricane Katrina. These medications are now reimbursable when provided in the office setting in addition to the previous places of service.